Hi <add friend's name/s here>

This year I've registered to ride in the Tour de Brisbane for The Common Good, and I'm hoping you'll sponsor me and help me reach my goal of $<add your fundraising goal here>.

Right now, there are around 1,400 Australians on the organ transplant list waiting for a second chance at life. All funds I raise through my ride will go straight towards vital medical research into improving organ transplants.

Every $44 raised will fund another hour of research to help improve, and save the lives, of people with failing organs.

Will you please help by donating to my ride?

Every donation, no matter how big or small will make a difference, so dig deep and give what you can.

Thank you for your support, I really appreciate it.
